

Terms and Conditions — Easy Housing Configurator

Last updated: 29 June 2026

1. About these terms

These terms and conditions ("Terms") apply to your use of the online design configurator (the "Configurator") provided by Easy Building Concepts B.V. ("Easy Housing", "we", "us", "our"). Easy Building Concepts B.V. is a company registered in the Netherlands under Chamber of Commerce (KvK) number 78108160, with its registered office at Eikendwarsstraat 10, 6706 BK Wageningen, the Netherlands.

In these Terms, "Easy Housing" includes Easy Building Concepts B.V. and its operating entities in Uganda and Kenya, as the context requires.

By using the Configurator you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, please do not use the Configurator.

2. What the Configurator does

The Configurator lets you shape a possible house design by adjusting parameters such as typology, width, length, room layout, and options. As you do so, it shows an indicative price and a summary of your design.

When you submit your details, the Configurator generates a PDF overview of your design and emails it to you. We also store a copy of the design and the details you provide. The purpose of the tool is to help you explore a design and to start a conversation with our sales team. The PDF is something you can bring with you when you meet us.

3. Eligibility

You must be at least 18 years old to use the Configurator and to submit your details. The Configurator is not directed at children, and we do not knowingly collect details from anyone under 18.

4. The price indication is indicative only

Any price shown in the Configurator is an indication only. It is shown in the applicable local currency. It is not a quotation, not an offer, and not a price we are bound to.

Unless we state otherwise in writing, an indicative price does not include items such as:

- the land or plot;
- site preparation, foundations, and groundworks;
- permits, approvals, and other regulatory costs;
- transport, delivery, and connection to services;
- taxes, duties, and levies.

Any indicative price is also subject to a site assessment. Ground conditions, plot access, slope, location, and other site factors can change both the design and the cost. A firm price can only be given after we have assessed your specific project.

5. Designs and visual representations

The floor plans, layouts, dimensions, and furniture shown in the Configurator are for general visual representation. Furniture and fixtures may not be to scale. The design you create is a starting point and is subject to engineering, site assessment, and a final agreed design.

6. No contract is formed through the Configurator

Using the Configurator, submitting your details, and receiving a PDF do not create any contract to design or build a house. A binding agreement only comes into being when you and the relevant Easy Housing entity sign a separate written contract that sets out the agreed design, scope, price, and terms.

7. Intellectual property

Easy Housing owns, or is licensed to use, all intellectual property in the Configurator. This includes the underlying building typologies, the design system, the drawings, the generated design files (such as the PDF and DXF outputs), the software, the text, and the branding.

When you create a design and receive the generated PDF, we grant you a limited, personal, non-transferable, non-exclusive licence to use that PDF for one purpose only: communicating with Easy Housing about your possible project. You may not copy, adapt, publish, sell, share, or otherwise reuse the designs, drawings, or generated files, and you may not use them to build or have built any structure, without a separate written agreement with us. You may not reverse-engineer the Configurator or the design logic behind it.

8. Acceptable use

When you use the Configurator you agree that you will not:

- provide false, misleading, or someone else's personal details;
- access or use the Configurator through automated means, including scraping, crawling, or bulk extraction;
- interfere with, disrupt, or attempt to gain unauthorised access to the Configurator or its systems;
- use the Configurator for any unlawful purpose or in any way that infringes the rights of others.

We may suspend or block access if we reasonably believe these Terms are being breached.

9. Personal data

We process the personal details you provide in line with our Privacy Policy, which explains what we collect, why, and your rights. Please read it together with these Terms.

10. Availability and changes to the Configurator

The Configurator is provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis. We do not guarantee that it will always be available, uninterrupted, or free of errors. We may change, suspend, or discontinue the Configurator, or any part of it, at any time without notice.

11. Liability

To the extent permitted by law, we are not liable for any loss or damage arising from:

- your reliance on any indicative price, design, dimension, or other figure shown in the Configurator;
- any inaccuracy in a visual representation or in the generated PDF;
- the Configurator being unavailable, interrupted, or containing errors.

Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits our liability where it would be unlawful to do so. Nothing in these Terms affects any mandatory rights you have as a consumer under the law of your country of residence.

12. Governing law and disputes

These Terms are governed by the law of the Netherlands. Any dispute relating to these Terms or to the Configurator will be submitted to the competent courts of the Netherlands. If you are a consumer, this choice does not deprive you of the protection of any mandatory consumer-protection rules that apply in your country of residence.

13. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. The version that applies is the one published on our website when you use the Configurator. The date at the top shows when these Terms were last updated.
